

A Unique Approach: “Today’s Tools for Tomorrow’s Success” is a three (3) day skills-based training focused on a set of macro-level skills common to prevention work in diverse settings, addressing multiple issues, and targeted at clients of any age.

Target Audience: Direct service staff in any type of prevention work with three (3) or fewer years experience. More experienced staff will also benefit from review and skills practice.

Skills Focus: Institute Participants gain the research-based knowledge and skills that can be used in a Prevention arena to:

- **Establish positive life-changing relationships
- **Use specific tools and processes to build and sustain positive behavior change
- **Address motivational issues that create barriers to change
- **Alter participant thought processes leading to positive attitude and behavior change
- **Manage and use the group process to bring about positive outcomes
- **Use specific educational strategies and techniques teach more effectively
- **Measure incremental participant progress toward target behaviors
